Claire Ruby James, Ymma Tierra (pronounced iymma tierra) and Penelope & Owlsley will be the acts for this event.

Performing at the Arts Centre in Warburton on Saturday 17 February from 7-9pm.

The event will include acts by: Claire Ruby James of Dr Jazz, The Funky Monkey Family and Awaken Circus. She will be for the first time in Warburton, bringing her original songs into the spotlight. Having performed live for 20 years Claire Ruby James has graced the stages of 1000's of venues with her glow. Some highlights include The Art Centre - Melbourne, Moomba, The Spiegeltent Melbourne, Woodford Folk Festival, Peninsula Hot Springs, Werribee Zoo, Science Works and the State Library Victoria.

Penelope & Owlsley: The music sparkles, pulses, bubbles and flows. Embrace the newness, for that is their sound.

Owlsley first describes working with Penelope as 'Well, I got chills when I heard the first playback. Penelope had navigated the song in such a way that it felt like she'd completely internalised it, meshed with it and alchemised it into an entirely new entity. This was next level stuff. I was excited about music for the first time in ages! As the months rolled on the surprises kept coming. It was the gift that kept on giving. I found myself looking forward to our recording sessions. But it wasn't only Penelope's melodies and phrasing that thrilled, but also her words. Our individual personas and world views are sometimes like chalk and cheese, but the synthesis of both is something truly extraordinary.'

Ymma ~~xxx~~ Tierra - means 'Mother Earth' - in a combination of Hebrew (אמא) and Spanish (Tierra) - the ancestral lineages of creatrix Samantha Levy.

This experimental music project of acoustic singing, loop pedal, rhythm, guitar and nature sounds dives deep into the
