SAMANTHA LEVY

(<https://www.memomusichall.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2025/03/Samantha-Levy.jpeg>) A rich blend of Hebrew and Spanish heritage, with inspiration from 'Mother Earth'. Soulful music and ethereal vocals weave together stories that channel the wisdom of ancient ancestors, grounding the present moment with vibrant energy and a profound connection to Life and Place. Accompanied by Jordan Scotney on keys/piano.

MIA PISANO:

(<https://www.memomusichall.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2025/03/Mia-Pisano.jpeg>) Singer-songwriter from Naarm, Melbourne, Australia. Her modern take on folk and Americana is eclectic and unapologetic. A classic storyteller with a bleeding heart, her songs are earnest, eloquent, and meticulously crafted.

TANYA-LEE DAVIES, REBECCA BARNARD & ALISON FERRIER:

(https://www.memomusichall.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/64ee90aca599d7f1e19e0546_Tan-Bec-Ali-p-1080-1.jpg) Three acclaimed artists unite for a special collaboration, blending their songs and voices in a powerful, one-of-a-kind performance.

Rebecca Barnard was brought up in the jazz scene in the 60's and 70's being carted around pubs and clubs at a young age with her father, drummer Len Barnard whose most notable band was Galapagos Duck. She performed for many years before forming her band Rebecca's Empire in the 90's. The band was much loved and had songs on the Triple J Hottest 100 for 3 years running. She has been a regular guest on TV shows Spicks n Specks and Rockwiz and appears often on ABC radio as co host to various presenters.. She has just released 4 solo albums. She has been performing nationally for over 40 years.

Melbourne songstress Tanya-Lee Davies is a heart-seeking missile, who specialises in dreamy pop, country and hypnotic folk. She found her psychic home and inspiration in the sounds of Laurel Canyon, Nashville and early 70's New York. Big on melody and lyrics that cast spells, she once found herself at a seance with Jenny Lewis, Mazzy Star, Carole King and Ronnie Spector at John Cassavetes and Gina Rowlands LA home. In a psychedelic moment they morphed into one deity that she's worshipped ever since. She may be a Californian dream, a girl group sound gone swampy post a New York trip, or the Mamas, without the Papas, on an unlikely bus trip to Nashville, either way it's a romantic, mesmerising brew.

Alison Ferrier delivers an evocative and emotive collection of atmospheric folk, laid-back country and hypnotic blues. Her lyrically-rich slow-build numbers showcase her talent for melody, and her vocals are effortlessly refined with conviction and vulnerability in equal measure.
